Estep for the sum of $100.00, and that said mortgage was recorded on the said 3rd. day of December 1894 in the mortgage records of Hendricks County Indiana, in Book 29 at page 189. He also shows that the funeral expenses and expenses of the last sickness and expenses of administration amount to the sum of $----- and that there is not enough of the personalty to pay the indebtedness of the estate of the said decedent.

The said administrator also shows to the court that the decedent died the owner in fee simple of the following real estate in Hendricks County in the State of Indiana, to-wit:- Lot number one (1) in Block number seven (7) in Nave' Addition to the Town of Danville which said real estate is encumbered with the mortgage above set out, and that said real estate is liable to be made assets to pay the debts of the decedent.

He also says that the defendants above named are the heirs at law and only heirs of the said decedent, and are her children and grand children.

Wherefore he asks for an order of the court for a sale of the said real estate to make assets to pay the debts of decedent, and that said real estate be sold free and discharged from the lien of the said mortgage.

No. 1323. Land Sale.

Mary J. Harlan, Nelson F. Bedford,
Kate L. Scearce, Wilbur K. Harlan, and
Robert H. Sargent.

Comes the administrator herein by Hogate & Clark, his attorneys. and shows to the Court the writs of summons issued herein for the defendant Mary J. Harlan, from which it appears that on the 20th. day of April 1895 the said Mary J. Harlan acknowledged the service of said summons by an endorsement in writing on the back of the same in the following words:—"I, Mary J. Harlan, do hereby acknowledge the service of this summons upon me this 20th. day of April 1895, and waive service by officer or publication in any newspaper. And I do hereby consent that the Hendricks Circuit Court shall have complete jurisdiction of me for the purposes of this suit. Mary J. Harlan."

Said summons reads as follows:- (H.I.) And the administrator also shows to the court and files the summons issued to the Sheriff of Madison County Indiana, from which it appears that said summons had been duly served on the defendant Nelson F. Bedford at least ten days before the 6th. day of May 1895, said summons and the return of the Sheriff read as follows:- (H.I) And the administrator also shows to the court the summons issued to the Sheriff of Hendricks County Indiana, and the return of that officer endorsed thereon from which it appears that the defendants Kate L. Scearce and Wilbur K. Harlan had been duly served with said summons at least ten days before the first day of the present term of this court. Said summons and the return read as follows:- (H.I.) And the administrator also shows to the court the summons issued to the Sheriff of Montgomery county Indiana, and the return of that officer endorsed thereon from which it appears that said summons had been duly served on the defendant Robert H. Sargent at least ten days before the first day of the present term of this court. Said summons reads as follows:- (H.I.) And the defendants Mary J. Harlan, Nelson F. Bedford and Kate L. Scearce failing to appear and answer the complaint herein they are each three times loudly called but come not and herein wholly make default. And the infancy of Wilbur K. Harlan and Robert H. Sargent is suggested to the court whereupon the court appoints James G. Mills a reputable attorney of this bar Guardian ad litem for said infant defendants. And now comes the said Guardian ad litem and as such files his answer in the words and figures as follows, to-wit:- (H.I.)

And now this cause is called for trial on the petition, summons, defaults of the adult defendants and the answer of the Guardian ad litem for the infant defendants, and after hearing the evidence and inspecting the proofs the court doth say and find that the said Catharine Bedford departed this life intestate in the county of Hendricks on the 13th. day of March 1895. leaving as her heirs at law and only heirs the defendants to this suit. That she left a personal estate to be administered of about the sum of $169.50; that there is a claim filed against said estate but not allowed of about the sum of $300.00 and that there is a mortgage on the said real estate described in the petition of $100.00 payable to James L. Clark, Trustee of John W. and Daisy M. Estep which mortgage is dated on the 3rd. day of December 1894 and is due in one year from said date. That the indebtedness of the said estate including the expenses of administration and last sickness and funeral expenses is more than the personalty. And the Court also finds that the decedent at the time of her death was the owner in fee simple of the real estate described in the petition, and that the same is liable to be sold for the payment of the debts of the deceased, and that a sale thereof for that purpose is necessary.

And now comes said administrator and presents to the court and files an inventory and appraisal of the said real estate, from which it appears that the same was appraised by William R. McClelland and Ed. L. Christie two reputable householders and free holders of the county of Hendricks and State of Indiana, at the sum of $800⁰⁰-----. Said appraisal reads as follows: (H.I.) And the administrator also files a bond in the sum of $1600⁰⁰-----conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties in and about the sale of said real estate, with William R. McClelland and ----- as his sureties, which bond and the sureties thereto are approved by the court.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that said administrator proceed to sell at private sale without notice of the time, place, terms or conditions of sale the following real estate in Hendricks County in the State of Indiana, to-wit:- Lot number one (10) in block number seven (7) in Nave's Addition to the town of Danville, and that the same be sold free and discharged from the lien of the mortgage of the said James L. Clark, Trustee as found herein. And the said Administrator is ordered to sell the said real estate for one third cash in hand on the day of sale, one third in six and one third in twelve months from the day of sale, taking the security for the deferred payments as the law provides.

And the said administrator is ordered to report his proceedings to this court for approval.

Conrad E. Harlan, Administrator of the estate of Catharine Bedford deceased, respectfully reports to the court that on the 14th. day of August 1896 Elizabeth G. Searce offered for Lot number one (1) in Block number seven (7) in Nave's Addition to the town of Danville Hendricks County in the State of Indiana, the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800.00) and no person offering more and that sum being the full appraised value for the same I sold the same to the said Elizabeth G. Searce at private sale without notice of the time, place, terms or conditions of sale for the said sum of eight hundred dollars ($800.00). And the Administrator shows to the court that since the order of sale was made herein on the 6th. day of May 1896 he has constantly had said property for sale and had exhibited the same to different parties and has had offers for the same but that said sum is the most that he has ever been offered for the same by any one who would comply with the offer.

And he also shows that the said Elizabeth G. Searce had paid her bid in cash instead of on the terms prescribed by the court.

And now this administrator asks the court to approve the sale so made at private sale, and so modify the order of sale made herein on the 6th. day of May 1896 providing for one third in cash, one third in six months and one third in twelve months from the day of sale and permit him the said administrator to receive the whole of the purchase price in cash, in order that he may at once close up the estate of the said decedent.

And the administrator asks that he may now be permitted to report to the court a deed of conveyance to the said Elizabeth G. Scearce for the said real estate purchased by her.
