KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, THAT WE William W. Matlock & Ispe J. Matlock

of the County of Hendricks, and State of Indiana, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana, in the penal sum of Three hundred Dollars, Lawful Money of the United States, for the payment of which, well and truly to be made and done, we bind Ourselves, Our Heirs, Executors and Administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents: Sealed with Our Seals, and dated this 11th day of July 18*42*

THE CONDITION of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound
William W. Matlock will truly and faithfully perform the duties and trusts committed to him as

Administrator
of the Estate of Rosannah Dunn deceased, according to Law,

Boswell plaintiff in this suit by now his attorney complains of Henry Joseph Stroas Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel A. Sumner deceased, defendant in this suit, of a plea of trespass on the case, in apocryphis,

For that whereas the said Samuel A. Sumner in his lifetime to wit on the 24th day of February 1846, was indebted to the said plaintiff in the sum of five hundred dollars for work and labor, care and diligence <sup>done by said plaintiff</sup> in nursing the said Sumner in his last sickness, at the request of the said Sumner,

And in the sum of fifty dollars for the price and value of goods then and there bought sold and delivered by the plaintiff to the said Sumner in his lifetime, and at his request And in one hundred dollars for the price value of goods then and there sold and delivered by the said plaintiff, to the said Sumner in his lifetime and at his request, And in four hundred dollars for the price and value of work done and materials for the same provided by the plaintiff for the said Sumner in his lifetime and at his request,

And in the sum of two hundred dollars for money then and there lent by the plaintiff to the said Sumner in his lifetime
and at his request,

And in the sum of two hundred dollars for money then and there paid by the plaintiff for the use of the said Sumner, and at his request,

And in the sum of one hundred dollars for money then and there received by the said Deane in his lifetime, for the use of the said plaintiff,

And in the sum of two hundred dollars, for money found to be due from the said Deane in his lifetime to the said plaintiff for an account then and there stated between them,

of three hundred dollars, for meat, drink, washing, lodging, and other necessaries, and goods & chattels by the plaintiff before that time found and provided for the said Deane in his lifetime and at his special instance and request.
And whereas also afterwards to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid and in the lifetime of the said Deane, in consideration that the said plaintiff at the like special instance and request of the said Deane had before that time found and provided other meat, and drink, washing, lodging, and necessaries, goods & chattels for the said Deane, he the said Deane man--took and then and there in his lifetime faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him so much money, as he therefore reasonably deserved to have of the said Deane when he the said Deane should be thereunto afterwards requested, And the said plaintiff over, that he therefore reasonably deserved to have of the said Deane the further sum of three hundred dollars

the further sum of one hundred dollars for meat, drink, and lodging, goods & chattels and other necessaries by the said plaintiff before that time found and provided at the special instance and request of the said Deaneau, for H. Woodburn, and divers other persons,

And whereas also on the day and year, aforesaid in recollection that the said plaintiff at the like special instance and request of the said Deaneau had before that time found and provided other meat, drinks, washing lodging goods & chattels, and necessaries, for the said Deaneau in his lifetime and divers other persons he the said Deaneau undertook, and thus there faithfully promised the said plaintiff to pay him so much money, as he therefore reasonably deserved to <sup>job</sup> of the said Deaneau and the said plaintiff overs that he reasonably deserved to have therefore the further sum of three hundred dollars and in the further sum of one hundred dollars for horse meat, stabling, care & attendants by the plaintiff, before that time found, provided and bestowed for in and about, the feeding and keeping of divers Horses, mares, geldings and carts of and for the said Deaneau and divers other persons and at his special instance and request, and whereas the said Deaneau afterwards and in his lifetime, for consideration of the premises, there and there promised to pay to the said plaintiff the aforesaid said several sums of money above demanded or required but although after requested, did not pay the same or any part thereof nor has the said defendant ever, although after requested so to do, paid the same or any part thereof to the damage of said plaintiff
