William McCluer
Executor

Aug 8 1849.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we, William McCluer, & Amos S. Mills, all of Hendricks County, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana in the sum of one Thousand dollars, for the payment of which well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this 14th day of June 1847.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound William McCluer, shall diligently and faithfully execute the duties and trusts committed to him as Executor of the last will & testament of James McCluer, late of said County deceased, and will obey all orders and decrees of the Probate Court of Hendricks County, made pursuant to law, touching the administration of the estate entrusted to him then the above obligation is to be void and of none effect, otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law.

Signed, sealed, and delivered in the presence of

William McCluer [SEAL.]
Amos Mills [SEAL.]

To the Honorable Abraham Vland Judge of said Probate Court:

William M. Clure executor of the last Will and Testament of James M. Clure late of said County deceased, respectfully represents, That he stands charged as per inventory ^{of} the personal estate of said Testator, now on file in this Court, with the sum of $664.50.
That it is in and by the last Will and Testament of said deceased, directed, that said executor sell so much of his personal property as may be necessary to pay the just debts and funeral expenses of said deceased, and that the remainder of ~~said~~ the personal property be intrusted to his widow Jane M. Clure for certain purposes, and for a certain length of time, and under certain restrictions in said Will mentioned. That he said executor did sell at public auction personal property inventoried amounting to the sum of $269.12 1/2 as per sale bill thereof on file in this Court, and the remainder of said property inventoried, and not sold, amounting by appraisement to $442.22 1/4 he delivered to the said Jane M. Clure, widow of said testator, as per receipt attached to Inventory on file.
Which leaves in the hands of said executor the sum of $269.12 1/2 the amount of the sales aforesaid, and also $4.20 interest collected making together the sum of $273.32 1/2 Said executor claims credit for the following sums by him paid out in discharge of the just debts of the testator, his funeral expenses and expenses of administration,
