

Know all men by these presents that we Job Osborn & Joseph Coffin all of the County of Hendricks and State of Indiana are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana in the penal sum of one thousand Dollars lawful money of the United States for the true payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs & jointly and severally by these presents In witness whereof we do hereunto set our hands and seals this 3rd day of January A.D. 1833

The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bounden Job Osborn was this day taken out Letters of Administrators on the Estate of Matthew Osborn Deceased intestate late of Hendricks County Ia now should the said Job Osborn faithfully discharge the duties and trust committed to him as such Administrator and truly and promptly deliver and pay over to his successor to be appointed by the Hendricks Probate Court if any such ever should be appointed of such Estate all monies goods chattels credits and effects which may have come into his hands by virtue of the office of Administrator aforesaid upon reasonable demand and do and perform all acts and things relative to said Estate according to Law as such Administrator then & in that case the above obligation to void and of none effect otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in Law and Equity

James T. Hadley }

In error to the Hendricks Probate Court;

At this time come the parties by their counsel and the court being sufficiently advised of the premises give the following opinion & judgment, pronounced by Judge Blackford

In this case Hadley filed an account in the Probate Court against Osborn's intestate, & obtained a judgment without the defendant's appearance, or any notice to him of the writ. The judgment cannot be supported.

It is, therefore, considered by the court that the judgment of the Circuit Court be wholly reversed & held for naught, which is ordered to be certified to said court.

The State of Indiana ss

I Henry G. Coburn clerk of said Supreme Court do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full true & correct copy of the opinion & judgment of said court in above entitled case, In testimony whereof I have hereto subscribed my name & affixed the seal of said court at Indianapolis this 9th day of August A.
