thereof 1844.

The State of Indiana on the relation of and for the use and benefit of William Plaster Administrator ~~to her use~~ of all and singular the goods & chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects of <sup>the estate of</sup> John Plaster late of said County deceased Plaintiff in this suit by (above her attorney) Complainers of Lewis Mastin, Edmund Clark and James L. Givon defendants in this suit of a plea of debt that they render unto the said State of Indiana for the use and benefit of the said William Plaster Administrator ~~of her use~~ the sum of one thousand dollars lawful <sup>money</sup> which to her they owe and from her unjustly detain &c For that whereas the said defendants on the 30th day of January A.D. 1838 at the County and State of aforesaid made their certain writing obligatory of that date sealed with seals (and now to the court here shown) and then and there delivered the same to the said State of Indiana for the use of the said William Plaster Administrator ~~of her use~~ (aforesaid) and thereby bound themselves to pay to the said State of Indiana (who sues as aforesaid) the sum of one thousand dollars, when they should be thereunto afterwards requested; but the said defendants nor either of them although thereunto requested have not paid the said sum of money nor any part thereof, &c

And for that whereas the said defendants on the day and year first aforesaid at the County and State of aforesaid made their certain other writing obligatory of that date sealed with their seals (and now to the court here shown) in substance as follows to wit, Know all men by these presents, that we Lewis Mastin , Edmund Clark, ~~Edward Strang~~, Edmund Clark & James L. Givon of the County of Hendricks and State of Indiana, are held, and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana, in the penal to the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves , our heirs, Executors and Administrators, firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 30th day of January 1838.

The condition of this obligation is this, That whereas the above named Lewis Mastin &c this day obtained Letters of Administration to Administer upon all and singular the goods, Chattels, Rights, Hereditie Monies and effects of John Plaster late of said County, deceased now if the said Lewis Mostin, Shall and will, truly and faithfully perform the duties and trusts Committed to him as Administrator of the Estate aforesaid and will truly and promptly deliver and pay over to his Successor to be appointed by the probate Court, if any ~~one~~ should ever be appointed of such estate, Goods, Chattels, and Effects, and assign to the said successor, of such assets, and of the rights and credits which of right may belong to such successor, upon reasonable demand, then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force and virtue. Lewis Mostin Edmund Clarke James L. Moore and the said Plaintiff avers that at the May Term of the Hendricks ~~County~~ Probate Court 1841 the said Lewis Mostin was duly removed by said Court from the further administration of said Estate aforesaid according to law and that the said William Plaster, <sup>for whose use this suit is brought</sup> was duly appointed by said Probate Court at the term aforesaid Administrator ~~de facto~~ of the estate of the said John Plaster deceased aforesaid and was then and there duly qualified and swore into office as such Administrator and did then and there take upon himself the Administration of said estate yet to be administered according to law, and for a breach of the said condition of the said writing obligatory the said State of Indiana who sues for the use of the said William Plaster Administrator as aforesaid, according to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided avers that the said Lewis Mostin did not truly and faithfully perform the duties and trusts Committed to him as such of the estate aforesaid but therein wholly failed in this that he as such Administrator as aforesaid by virtue of his appointment as such Administrator did collect and receive the sum of four hundred and four dollars thirty seven cents monies belonging to the said estate of John Plaster deceased and sum of to parts unknown, and thereby then & there ~~there~~ did not truly and promptly deliver and pay over to his successor William Plaster the administrator appointed as aforesaid by said Probate Court to administer said estate as aforesaid the aforesaid sum of money by him received as as aforesaid nor ~~did~~ the said Lewis Martin deliver over to for whose use this suit is brought the said William Boster Administrator as aforesaid all the <sup>of its</sup> rights & credits which <sup>right</sup> did belong to the said William Boster as his successor to wit the sum aforesaid, but after having received the said monies as aforesaid did run off to port unknown therefore it has been completely out of the power of the said William Boster for whose use this suit is brought to demand the same from the said Lewis Martin according to law, but the said defendants have not paid the aforesaid sum of money above demanded on any part thereof although often requested so to do to the damage of the said Plaintiff who sues for the use of the said William Boster as aforesaid one thousand dollars, and therefore she sues &c And the said William Boster <sup>for whose use this suit is brought</sup> now brings here unto court the Letters of Administration to him granted by this Honorable court, &c these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this 30th day of January 1838.

They also crave oyer of the condition of the said writing obligatory, and it is read to them in these words. The condition of this obligation is this. That whereas the above named Lewis Master had this day obtained letters of Administration, to administer upon all and singular the goods vs

Lewis Mooten Edmund Clark & John Givan

And the said Plaintiff as to the said plea of the said Clark & Givan by them firstly above pleaded to the first count of said declaration says procludi non. Because she swears that the said defendants did not from time to time and at all times after the making the said writing obligatory and the said condition thereof well & truly observe perform fulfil & keep all and singular the articles, clauses, payments, conditions, undertakings, duties of the said Lewis Mostin and gave bond, and so sworn as such to Administrator said Estate according to law and the said State of Indiana who sees for the use of William Closter as aforesaid avers that the said Lewis Mostin after having received the aforesaid sums of money removed from the State of Indiana to parts unknown without first having truly & properly delivered <sup>up</sup> or paying the aforesaid sums of money or on any part thereof to the said William Closter as such newly appointed Administrator <sup>as aforesaid</sup> or in any manner: duly ~~duly~~ <sup>to law accounting in any manner</sup> accounting for the same as he the said Mostin was bound to have done nor has he paid or accounted for the same at any time since in any manner whatever but on the contrary thereof has remained in parts unknown ever since therefore it has been out of the power of the said William Closter as his successor to demand the money of the said Mostin wherefore the said defendants have not truly and faithfully kept & performed the duties and trusts committed to the said Lewis Mostin as such Administrator as aforesaid in compliance and discharge of the condition of the aforesaid writing obligatory according to law to wit at the county
