John Weir in behalf of Franklin and Charles Weir, minor heirs of David Weir, deceased, shows to the Court that Alva W. Bossett is the legally appointed Guardian of said minors, and that at the time of his appointment he gave Bond, with Barney Stor as his surety, in the penal sum of $350, - that being thought sufficient at the time to secure all the assets that would come into the hands of said Guardian - but afterwards to wit - at the May Term 1867 of this Court, by order of the Court, certain Real Estate of said minors was sold and the proceeds thereof, amounting to $1924.90 placed in said Guardian's hands and therein remains, without other security than that afforded by the Bond of $350.

And said John Weir asks the Court to require said Guardian to give additional Bond for the security of his wards estate, ^{or that he be removed from said trust}

Said Guardian further shows the Court that the above balance shown in his hands largely consists of judgments against A. B. Fox & Barney Fox as yet uncollectable and that it is uncertain as to what can be realized thereon; that he is pushing said judgments to settlement rapidly as possible and will by the next report have them so requested as to know certainly with how much he should be charged. He further states that he has received and could have received, no interest, except a small amount counted in notes on their renewal, but that he will account for all received or to be received at his next report, and that he has used none of said money in his own private business.
