HOW THE TEACHER MAY SAVE TIME

1. By prompt response to time signals.
2. By giving explicit directions.
3. By better assignment of lessons.
4. By eliminating trifles.
5. By using fewer words and more thought.
6. By not nagging and scolding.
7. By not explaining what pupils already know.
8. By not attempting to teach before attention is secured.
9. By using blackboard illustrations, pictures, maps, or other concrete material.
10. By daily preparation of lesson.
11. By rarely repeating questions and answers.
12. By not spending too much time with slow pupils.
13. By using well organized lesson plans.
14. By seeing that all pupils are at work.
15. By allowing the pupils to do the mechanical work.
16. By not explaining what pupils may study out for themselves.
17. By becoming acquainted with physical defects of some pupils.
18. By seldom prompting pupils.
19. By accepting answers without saying "all right."
20. By speaking in a low positive tone.
21. By keeping a complete set of text books for personal use.
